Easter Season at St Margaret's

The Easter season is this time when the disciples adjust to their “New extraordinary”: Having been witnesses of Jesus’s Resurrection, they wonder what this earth shattering revelation means for themselves, their community and the world. How are they to live now?

During this season, the lectionary (= Our set of readings for each Sunday) leads us through two important passages of the Bible: Jesus’s Farewell Discourse in John’s Gospel and the ten first chapters of the Book of Acts.

- Jesus’s Farewell discourse will be the focus of our Sunday sermons.

You can prepare by reading from John’s Gospel, Chapters 13 through 17 (included)

If you wish to have more insights on John’s Gospel, you could be interested in reading “John for Everyone” (Part 1 and especially Part 2) by NT Wright.

- We will read Acts together as part of a Tuesday Bible study, on Zoom from 6pm to 7pm. The schedule will be as follows:

04/27: Chapters 1 and 2
05/04: Chapters 3 and 4
05/11: Chapters 5 and 6
05/18: Chapters 7 and 8
05/25: Chapters 9 and 10

The study will be based on the book: “Called to be Church” by Anthony B. Robinson & Robert W. Wall. No need to read the book to attend the Bible study! To make the most of the session, reading from Acts is recommended though.

- Easter season is also the time when Jesus invites his disciples to pray “in his name”.

As we gather on Zoom each Wednesday for a traditional Noonday prayer, starting May 5th we will have each week a 5 minutes reflection on how to learn to pray more deeply and boldly with a reading taken from Craig Groeschel’s book “Dangerous Prayers”.

I am looking forward to meeting with you!

Feel free to join anytime as you are able, and don’t hesitate to be in touch with me if you have any questions.

Blessings,

Rev. Fanny

Weekly Prayers

A Prayer for Peace

Eternal God, in whose perfect kingdom no sword is drawn but the sword of righteousness, no strength known but the strength of love: So mightily spread abroad your Spirit, that all peoples may be gathered under the banner of the Prince of Peace, as children of one Father; to whom be dominion and glory, now and for ever. Amen.
